2017 My Chinese at Its Best

- Goal: Improve students' ability in using Chinese idioms and phrases through interesting language games and increase their knowledge in Chinese culture.
- Date: December 22th, 2017(Friday) 1:30-5:30 PM (If there are too many team entries, we will move the preliminary competition to December 21th.)
- Location: R706
- Qualification: MTC students (excluding overseas Chinese students) are priority applicants. If there are less than 4 teams that are formed from MTC students, we will open up the competition to NTNU foreign student applicants who are also interested in signing up.
- Registration Deadline: now— December 12th, Please sign up in R601.
- Competition Formats:
 1. Three Proficiency levels: Beginner, Intermediate, Advance
 2. Team competition (a team of 3 players.) Two rounds of competition (Qualifying Rounds and Finals).
 3. Contest questions for beginner, intermediate, or advance levels will include vocabulary, pronunciation, culture, and other related subjects. The team who rings the bell first and answers the question first will be given a point. The team with the highest score wins. Each question is worth different points based on its difficulty. If there is a tie between teams, the competition will enter a "sudden death" tie breaker round.
 4. Maximum of 12 teams for each level. If less than 4 teams enter in one level, the level's competition would not be held.
 - ★If 4~6 teams enter the competition, only one round of competition will be held. Top 2 teams win the competition.
 - ★If 7-12 teams enter the competition, top 6 teams in the Qualifying Round are moved on to the Finals. Top 3 teams in the Finals win the competition.
 - ★ Competition schedule and number of teams qualifying for the Finals may be adjusted at the discretion of the host of the competitions.
